Why (What) Is Black Catholic History Month?

November 6, 2021 10:00 AM On AACCFE.ORG

On July 24, 1990 the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month to celebrate the long history and proud heritage of Black Catholics. It also marks a time to share in remembrance, the saints and souls of Africa and members of the African Diaspora.

We will explore in this forum the reasons for the establishment of a Black Catholic History Month and review the lives of African American Catholics who are on the road to Saint-hood; the contribution of African American Catholics in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles; the History of the largest lay African American Catholic organization, the Knights and Ladies of Peter Claver, and their contribution to the History of Black Catholics in Los Angeles.
