House of the Lord

JONATHAN SMITH & PHIL WICKHAM

1. We worship the God who was,
we worship the God who is.
We worship the God who evermore will be.
He opened the prison doors.
He parted the raging sea.
Our God, He holds the victory.

There's joy in the house of the Lord. There's joy in the house of the Lord to-day, and we won't be quiet.

We shout out Your praise!

There's joy in the house of the Lord.

Our God is surely in this place, and we won't be quiet.

We shout out Your praise!

2. We sing to the God who heals,
we sing to the God who saves.
We sing to the God who always makes a way.
'Cause He hung upon that cross,
then He rose up from the grave.
My God's still rolling stones away.

Bridge: We were the beggars, now we're royalty.
We were the prisoners, now we're running free.
We are forgiven, accepted, redeemed by His grace.
Let the house of the Lord sing praise!

The First Reading

ACTS 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth."

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The Second Reading

REVELATION 7:9, 14B-17

*I, John, had a vision of a great multitude,
which no one could count,
from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb,
wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.*

*Then one of the elders said to me,
"These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress;
they have washed their robes
and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.*

*"For this reason they stand before God's throne
and worship him day and night in his temple.
The one who sits on the throne will shelter them.
They will not hunger or thirst anymore,
nor will the sun or any heat strike them.
For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne
will shepherd them
and lead them to springs of life-giving water,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."*

Gospel

JOHN 10:27-30

Jesus said:

"My sheep hear my voice;

I know them, and they follow me.

I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.

No one can take them out of my hand.

*My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all,
and no one can take them out of the Father's hand.*

The Father and I are one."

The Lord is my shep - herd; there is noth-ing I shall want.

1. He lets me rest in open fields so green.

He leads me to the quiet streams.

He gives me strength

and guides me in his ways.

He renews his promises each day.

2. He is my guide, my shepherd and my king,

and in my fear he offers peace.

Though I walk through the valley,

I will not be afraid.

You will protect me; I'll be saved.

3. He goes before me;

my enemies will fall.

He is my shepherd and my shield.

His anointing is upon me,

and I will overcome.

His blessing cannot be undone.

My cup overflows.

Goodness and love will follow me
