Called to Serve

"Let us not love in word or talk, but in deed and in truth." -1 John 3:18

October 22nd

Called to Serve is a one-day, parishwide retreat on Saturday, October 22nd. Each small group will spend the morning assisting at a food pantry, shelter, or non-profit organization benefiting the vulnerable communities of Los Angeles. Afterward, groups will meet back at St. Monica's Grand Pavilion for lunch, reflection, and conversation about service, humility, and what it means to love in deed and in truth.
